Sommario/riassunto	Darling is a young reindoe who lives at the North Pole. When Santa is worried about all the planes in the air and whether or not they will see his reindeer and sleigh, Darling the Curly Tailed Reindoe comes to the rescue. Because of the sparkling pail that hangs from the curl in her tail, Darling joins Santa Claus and his reindeer as they fly through the sky on Christmas Eve. It's a night full of adventures for young Darling but the long night has a very happy ending. This delightful Christmas story is a follow-up to Daling the Curly Tailed Reindoe, the first in this series by author Cheryl Campbell. In her second book about this beloved character, the author provides a story that will have youngsters wide-eyed with anticipation as Darling has an adventurous Christmas Eve.
