Sommario/riassunto	Eoin O Siocchain, a young human rights activist from County Clare, travels to Brazil to research the violent conflict between a native tribe and local landowners. As he gets to know the locals, he begins to understand that the story is not as simple as he thought - but by that time, it's too late. Against his wishes, Eoin will have a key part to play when the conflict comes to a head.
