

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910163319703321
Autore	Briand Rena
Titolo	The Waifs
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Vivid Publishing
ISBN	1-925341-08-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (168 p.)
Disciplina	362.7/34
Soggetti	Interracial adoption Women political activists
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Sommario/riassunto	A fascinating story for anyone interested in the adoption of vulnerable mixed-race children abandoned in the aftermath of war. When Rena Briand adopted Tuyen, a Vietnamese orphan, and successfully brought her to Australia, dozens of families aspired to do the same. Rena Briand's "The Waifs" is a compelling story about battling officialdom with resilience and determination. A tale on how a handful of compassionate women fought to get a few Vietnamese waifs to Australia. Their opponents were formidable -conniving politiciansshypocritical church leadersracist social workersand the phony "charitables" of Toorak. A moving and courageous story.