

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910164252103321
Autore	Boys R.N., Captain Edward
Titolo	Narrative of a Captivity in France and Flanders Between the Years 1803 and 1809
Pubbl/distr/stampa	San Francisco : , : Wagram Press, , 2011 ©2011
ISBN	9781908692825 1908692820
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (75 pages)
Altri autori (Persone)	PublishingPickle Partners
Disciplina	940.277
Soggetti	Napoleonic Wars, 1800-1815 Naval history
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di contenuto	Title page.
Sommario/riassunto	Written at the promptings of friends and family, the story of Midshipman Boys captivity and escape from Napoleonic France stands as an adventure yarn par excellence, it is however the true story of his trials after capture by the French in 1803.As a young sailor in the Royal Navy, Boys was posted to the Mediterranean as part of the ships crew of the Phoebe, a 38-gun frigate. Cruising off the French naval base of Toulon as part of the blockade carried out by the British to squeeze the sea-borne trade of the French Republic, the Phoebe captured two small prize vessels, of which Boys was appointed prize master. This was the be a fateful turning point for him. Chased by French frigates that the prize vessel could not outsail, Boys was captured and entered the prisoner of war system in Napoleon's France.From Toulon he went on the long journey northward to Verdun, the main prisoner of war depot then in use, his many adventures, including exorbitant extortions and attempts to escape are told with some modesty and a keen eye to the details. After a number of foiled attempts, he manages to escape and sets out on a journey to find a way back to England make for a fascinating and entertaining read.Author - Captain Edward Boys, R.N. (1785-1866)

