

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910170965203321
Titolo	Fractured cities : social exclusion, urban violence and contested spaces in Latin America // Kees Koonings & Dirk Kruijt, editors
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, : Zed, c2006
ISBN	1-350-22022-1 1-84813-674-9 1-281-25915-2 9786611259150 1-84813-135-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (175 p.)
Classificazione	71.14 RV 10798
Altri autori (Persone)	KooningsKees KruijtDirk
Disciplina	305.5/69098091732
Soggetti	Urban poor - Latin America Urban violence - Latin America Latin America Social conditions
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: the duality of Latin American cityscapes -- Fractured cities, second-class citizenship and urban violence -- Rio de Janeiro -- Mexico City -- Medellin -- Managua -- Caracas -- Lima Metropolitana -- Living in fear : how the urban poor perceive violence, fear and insecurity -- Epilogue : Latin America's urban duality revisited.
Sommario/riassunto	As cities sprawl across Latin America, absorbing more and more of its people, crime and violence have become inescapable. Based on empirical evidence, interviews with local people and historical contextualization, the authors attempt to shed light on the fault-lines which have appeared in Latin American society.