| Sommario/riassunto      | Between Cultures considers the position of young Asians in Britain inrelation to education, employment, housing, the police and theresponses they encounter from these institutions. It explores thecultural issues of family, marriage, religion and mother tongue, and theroles of Asian parents and the Asian community are analysed.Muhammad Anwar goes on to compare the situation of young Asianswith that of young people generally, and to those in similarcircumstances but with different backgrounds and religions.  |
