Sommario/riassunto	The first Italian law journal entirely published in English. The IJPL was established in 2009 by a small group of scholars based in several Italian universities, with the encouragement and support of scholars from other countries. IJPL is interested in publishing pieces in all areas of public law, especially with regard to administrative and constitutional law. The journal encourages the submission of studies, comments and review articles from lawyers and social scientists from all over the world.
