| Sommario/riassunto      | This proceedings book presents the latest research in the fields ofinformation theory, communication system, computer science andsignal processing, as well as other related technologies. Collectingselected papers from the 3rd Conference on Signal and InformationProcessing, Networking and Computers (ICSINC), held in Chongqing,China on September 13-15, 2017, it is of interest to professionals fromacademia and industry alike. . |
