Sommario/riassunto

This pioneering collection of ten ethnographically rich essays signals the emergence of a new paradigm of social analysis committed to understanding and analyzing social oppression in the context of sexuality and gender. The contributors, an interdisciplinary group of social scientists representing anthropology, sociology, public health, and psychology, illuminate the role of sexuality in producing and reproducing inequality, difference, and structural violence among a range of populations in various geographic, historical, and cultural arenas. In particular, the essays consider racial minorities including Hispanics, Koreans, and African Americans; discuss disabled people; examine issues including substance abuse, sexual coercion, and HIV/AIDS; and delve into other topics including religion and politics. Rather than emphasizing sexuality as an individual trait, the essays view it as a social phenomenon, focusing in particular on cultural meaning and real-world processes of inequality such as racism and homophobia. The authors address the complex and challenging question of how the research under discussion here can make a real contribution to the struggle for social justice.

Sommario/riassunto	Was tun, wenn ein Mensch im Sterben liegt? Begleiten und somit Trost spenden – aber wie? Die Beiträge des interdisziplinären Bandes geben beruflich oder privat mit dem Tod konfrontierten Menschen Rat, wie Sterbende auf ihrem letzten Weg zu unterstützen sind. So leiten sie an zu einer ganzheitlichen Sterbebegleitung. What may be done when a person is dying? Accompany and thus give comfort - but how? The contributions of this interdisciplinary volume give professional or individual advice to people confronted with death on how to support dying people in their last days and hours. In this way they lead to a holistic palliative and terminal care. Der Band enthält Beiträge für unterschiedliche Zielgruppen. Einige sind wichtig für die Ausbildung und Weiterbildung von Ehrenamtlichen, Studierenden und Hauptamtlichen, die direkt mit Sterbenden oder ihren

Angehörigen arbeiten bzw. sich darauf vorbereiten. Socialnet.de, 17.02.2017 Dem interdisziplinären Konzept folgend kommen neben der Theologie auch andere Disziplinen zu Wort, etwa ein sehr lesenswerter Beitrag über den Umgang mit Sterben, Tod und Trauer in der Literatur oder eine Beschreibung der verschiedenen Phasen des Trauerns und unterschiedlicher Therapiemöglichkeiten. Interessant sind auch die Praxisbeispiele im zweiten Teil und vorbildlich die kommentierten Literaturhinweise. Erwachsenenbildung 3/2013
