

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910338055903321
Autore	Gunes Cengiz
Titolo	The Kurds in a New Middle East : The Changing Geopolitics of a Regional Conflict / / by Cengiz Gunes
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Cham : , : Springer International Publishing : , : Imprint : Palgrave Macmillan, , 2019
ISBN	9783030005399 3030005399
Edizione	[1st ed. 2019.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (130 pages)
Collana	Palgrave pivot
Disciplina	305.800956 956.00491597
Soggetti	Middle East - Politics and government Regionalism Ethnology - Middle East Culture International relations Middle Eastern Politics Middle Eastern Culture Foreign Policy
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	1. The Kurdish Resurgence in a Changing Middle East -- 2. The Kurdish Conflict in Iraq: Towards a Sustainable Solution -- 3. Turkey's Kurdish Conflict: The Sudden Reversal of Gradual Progress -- 4. The Syrian Conflict and Kurdish Ascendency -- 5. The Transformation of Iran's Kurdish Conflict -- 6. Kurdish Prospects in a Volatile Middle East.
Sommario/riassunto	This book examines the Kurds' rise as new regional actors in the Middle East and the impact this is having on the regional order. Kurdish political activism has reached a new height in the beginning of 21st Century with Kurdish movements in Iraq, Turkey and Syria establishing themselves as a significant force in the domestic politics of these states. The consolidation of Kurdish autonomy in Iraq and the establishment of a Kurdish de facto autonomous region within Syria is adding to the Kurds' growing influence in the region and enabling

Kurds to forge stronger relations with regional and international forces. The author analyses recent developments in the Kurdish question in Turkey, Iran, Iraq and Syria to understand the inter-connections and inter-dependencies that exist in the transnational Kurdish political space. The book's policy relevance is likely to attract strong interest from policy makers as well as from academics and students in the fields of Middle Eastern Politics and International Relations. .
