| Sommario/riassunto | Eleven essays compare European Union member states' positions on gender/women's issues, and EU and US policies. Legal progress and challenges relating to economic and political parity are probed, as well as the gender perspective on trade union policies, sexual harassment, implications of EU policies for non-EU migrant women, and policies on trafficking in women. Rosillii is a freelance sociologist researcher. The contributors are predominantly academics, with one male among them. Lacks an index. Annotation copyrighted by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR |
