

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910367639403321
Autore	Goodwin Grenville <1907-1940.>
Titolo	Grenville Goodwin Among the Western Apache : Letters from the Field / / Morris E. Opler, editor
Pubbl/distr/stampa	University of Arizona Press
ISBN	0-8165-4075-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (1 online resource (103 pages))
Altri autori (Persone)	OplerMorris Edward <1907-1996.>
Disciplina	970.3
Soggetti	Western Apache Indians Personal correspondence Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Letters written to M.E. Opler, 1932-39.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (pages 97-98).
Sommario/riassunto	Grenville Goodwin was one of the leading field anthropologists during a crucial period in American Indian research--the 1930s. His letters from the field provide original source material on Western Apache beliefs and customs. They also reveal the attitudes and methods which made him so effective in his work. A dedicated and thorough ethnographer, Goodwin became familiar with every aspect of Western Apache culture. AbeBooks.com