Sommario/riassunto	Mit ihrer Untersuchung landwirtschaftlicher Informationen aus den ältesten dänischen, schwedischen, englischen, irischen und fränkischen Rechtbüchern legt Annette Hoff eine wichtige Studie zur Entwicklung von Anbausystemen, zu Siedlungsformen und Landnutzung in Nordwesteuropa von ca. 600 - 1250 vor. Die Erkenntnisse der Rechtsparagrafen werden mit anderen historischen, archäologischen, kartografischen und naturwissenschaftlichen Quellen verglichen. Das

Buch behandelt sämtliche Aspekte der ländlichen Gesellschaft: die Hofgebäude mit Wohnhäusern, Scheunen, Ställen und Mühlen, den bewirtschafteten Boden mit Äckern und Sondergrundstücken, die Nutzung von Allmenden und Wäldern u. a. für die Viehhaltung sowie den Bau von Straßen und Brücken.

Sommario/riassunto	Study elementary and complex algorithms with clear examples and implementations in C. This book introduces data types (simple and structured) and algorithms with graphical and textual explanations. In the next sections, you'll cover simple and complex standard algorithms with their flowcharts: everything is integrated with explanations and tables to give a step-by-step evolution of the algorithms. The main algorithms are: the sum of three or n numbers in a loop, decimal-to-binary conversion, maximum and minimum search, linear/sequential search, binary search, bubble sort, selection sort, merging of two sorted arrays, reading characters from a file, stack management, and factorial and Fibonacci sequences. The last section of Introducing Algorithms in C is devoted to the introduction of the C language and the implementation of the code, which is connected to the studied algorithms. The book is full of screenshots and illustrations showing the meaning of the code. You will:

- Implement algorithms in C
- Work with variables, constants, and primitive and structured types
- Use arrays, stacks, queues, graphs, trees, hash tables, records, and files
- Explore the design of algorithms
- Solve searching problems, including binary search, sorting, and bubble/selection sort
- Program recursive algorithms with factorial functions and Fibonacci sequences.

Sommario/riassunto

"Red Money for the Global South explores the relationship of the East with the 'new' South after decolonization, with a particular focus on the economic motives of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance (CMEA) and other parties that were all striving for mutual cooperation. During the Cold War, the CMEA served as a forum for discussions on common policy initiatives inside the so-called 'Eastern Bloc' and for international interactions. This text analyses the economic relationship of the East with the 'new' South through three main research questions. Firstly, what was the motivation for cooperation? Secondly, what insights can be derived from CMEA negotiations about intrabloc and East-South relations alike? And finally, which mutual dependencies between East and South developed over time? The combination of analytical narrative and engagement with primary archival material from former CMEA states, and India as the most prestigious among the former European colonies, makes this text essential reading for students and instructors of Cold War history, Economic History and international relations more generally"--
