Sommario/riassunto	This book is the second volume in a trilogy that traces the development of the academic subject of International Relations, or what was often referred to in the interwar years as International Studies. In this volume, the author begins with the 1932 Mission to China and conference in Milan, examines the International Studies Conference, reviews the Hoover Plan, the MacDonald Plan, the fate of the World Disarmament

Conference, and the League of Nations' role in the discipline. This one of a kind project takes on the task of reviewing the development of IR, aptly published in celebration of the discipline's centenary. Jo-Anne Pemberton is Honorary Senior Lecturer in International Relations at the University of New South Wales, Australia.
