Sommario/riassunto	This ebook consists of a summary of the ideas, viewpoints and facts presented by David Horowitz and Richard Poe in his book "The Shadow Party: How Hillary Clinton, George Soros, and the Sixties Left Took Over the Democratic Party". This summary offers a concise overview of the entire book in less than 30 minutes reading time. However this work does not replace in any case David Horowitz's and Richard Poe's book. Horowitz and Poe believe that several Americans feel that the country is slipping away. The authors argue that the reason is the infiltration and corruption of the institutions by the

Sommario/riassunto	Education for sustainable development is presently a relevant topic in the policies of international organisations (such as UN/UNESCO and the European Union) and in national contexts such as Poland and Portugal. Within the policies implemented, civil society organisations and social movements undertake (adult) education for sustainable development projects and activities that have an important impact by raising awareness and promoting changes in the behaviour and attitudes of both countries' populations. However, several challenges can be pointed out regarding the implementation of these initiatives. These challenges will be highlighted in this article, which focuses on the comparison of policies and practices implemented in Poland and Portugal.
