

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910454523803321
Autore	Farmbry Kyle <1970->
Titolo	Administration and the other [[electronic resource]] : explorations of diversity and marginalization in the political administrative state // Kyle Farmbry
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, MD, : Lexington Books, 2009
ISBN	1-282-49425-2 9786612494253 0-7391-3387-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (213 p.)
Collana	Innovations in the Study of World Politics
Disciplina	351.01
Soggetti	Public administration - United States - History Humanism Electronic books. United States Politics and government
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Preface; Introduction: Diversity and the Administrative State; Chapter 01. Theoretical Foundations; Part I. THE EARLY REPUBLIC; Chapter 02. The Expert in a Period of American Enlightenment; Chapter 03. Slavery; Chapter 04. The Native American as The Other; Part II. THE FOUNDING ERA; Chapter 05. The Social Sciences and The Other; Chapter 06. The African American Male as The Other; Chapter 07. The Immigrant as The Other-Part I; Part III. TRANSITIONAL CONCERNs; Chapter 08. Housing The Other; Chapter 09. The War on Poverty; Chapter 10. Educating The Other Part IV. THE OTHER IN AN ERA OF LATE MODERNITYChapter 11. Welfare and The Other; Chapter 12. Counting and Categorizing The Other; Chapter 13. The Immigrant as The Other-Part II; Conclusion: Reconciliation with The Other; References; Index; About the Author
Sommario/riassunto	The American state, with its various instruments of policy-making and implementation, has found itself wrestling with various policy challenges related to matters of marginalization. Administration and the Other uses historical cases to examine the social construction of groups in American policy and proposes using the various lessons that are often unspoken in discussions of the history and evolution of the field to launch a discourse of inclusion and connectivity.

2. Record Nr.

	UNINA9910433246503321
Titolo	Arctic Madness : : The Anthropology of a Delusion / / Catherine V. Howard, Pierre Déléage
Pubbl/distr/stampa	HAU Books, 2020 [s.l.] : , : HAU Books, , 2020
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (1 p.)
Collana	Anthropological Novellas Series
Disciplina	917.19
Soggetti	Anthropology Biography Biographies. Northwest, Canadian Biography Northwest, Canadian Discovery and exploration Canada Canadian Northwest Northwest Territories
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di contenuto	Persecution mania : a missionary among First Nations -- Interpretation delusions : Israelites of the North Pole -- Prophetic frenzy : anticipating the end times.
Sommario/riassunto	The French missionary-linguist Émile Petitot (1838-1916) spent twenty years near the Arctic Circle in Canada, publishing numerous works on First Nations languages and practices. Over time, however, he descended into delirium and began to summon imaginary persecutions, pen improbable interpretations of his Indigenous hosts, and burst into schizoid fury. Delving into thousands of pages in letters and memoirs that Petitot left behind, Pierre Déléage has reconstructed the missionary's tragic story. He takes us on a gripping journey into the illogic and hyperlogic of a mind entranced with Indigenous peoples against the backdrop of repressive church policies and the emergent social sciences of the nineteenth century. Apocalyptic visions from the Bible and prophetic movements among First Nations peoples merged in the missionary's deteriorating psyche, triggering paroxysms of violence against his colleagues and himself. Whoever wishes to understand the contradictions of living between radically different societies will find this anthropological novella hard to put down.
