

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910436252503321
Autore	Werbner Pnina
Titolo	The making of an African working class : politics, law, and cultural protest in the Manual Workers' Union of Botswana // Pnina Werbner
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London : , : Pluto Press, , 2014
ISBN	1-78371-178-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (320 p.)
Collana	Anthropology, culture, and society
Disciplina	305.562096883
Soggetti	Strikes and lockouts - Botswana Labor unions - Botswana - History Working class - Botswana - History Botswana Politics and government Botswana Social conditions
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction -- A labour elite? Strategising women and the spectre of unemployment -- Women, leadership and the dignity of labour -- Lekgotla la Babereki, the Court of the Workers : the trade union as public forum -- 'Legitimate expectations' : ethics, law and labour justice in the 1991 strike -- The politics of infiltration : factionalism and party politics -- This land is our land : the 2005 Manual Workers' Union grand tour of Botswana -- Solidarity forever : mobilising the trade union movement in prayer and protest -- Winning against the odds : speaking truth to power and dilemmas of charismatic leadership -- 'The mother of all strikes' : popular protest culture and vernacular cosmopolitanism in the public service unions' strike, 2011 -- The political and moral economy of the 2011 strike : public rhetoric, conflict and policy -- Legal mobilisation, legal scepticism and the politics of public sector unions -- Concluding remarks : class identity, dignity and the agency of labour in Botswana.