

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910437997403321
Autore	Noffsinger Edward B (Edward Brallier), <1943->
Titolo	The ABCs of group visits : an implementation manual for your practice / / Edward B. Noffsinger
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, : Springer, 2012
ISBN	1-283-74046-X 1-4614-3526-9
Edizione	[1st ed. 2013.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (368 p.)
Disciplina	610.65
Soggetti	Family medicine Group medical appointments
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	Why try group visits in your practice? -- Today's three major group visit models -- Twelve key first steps -- Weeks 10 and 9 prior to launching your group visit -- Weeks 8, 7, and 6 prior to launch -- Weeks 5, 4, and 3 prior to launch -- Weeks 2 and 1 prior to launch -- The launch of your new group visit and thereafter.
Sommario/riassunto	Properly run group visit programs offer patient-centered care that can improve access, quality, outcomes, productivity, revenues, and both patient and physician satisfaction. The ABCs of Group Visits is a concise implementation manual that guides readers through a 10-week pipeline to design and launch a successful customized group visit program in any practice, large or small. The group visit model is highly adaptable and has been used to great success for follow-up visits, physical examinations, new patient intakes, and chronic disease management (among other applications) and can offer hope to beleaguered primary and specialty care physicians, Medicare, and Medicaid. Ideal for physicians, healthcare administrators and executive leaders alike, The ABCs of Group Visits contains all the vital information to help solve many of the problems facing busy, backlogged physicians and bring joy back into the practice of medicine. "Group visits are just the type of 'win-win' innovation that healthcare needs today—improving outcomes, enhancing service, and at their best, reducing costs and burden on both clinicians and those they serve." Don Berwick, MD, former President and CEO of IHI "Group visits offer an innovation to healthcare that can drive improvements to quality, outcomes, service, and productivity in all spheres in medicine—plus, as demonstrated in our substantial experience with them at Cleveland Clinic, yield high levels of patient and physician satisfaction in a wide variety of specialties." David L. Bronson, MD, FACP, President and CEO, Cleveland Clinic Regional Hospitals; Professor of Medicine, Cleveland Clinic Lerner College of Medicine.
