| Sommario/riassunto | Claiming Space: Racialization in Canadian Cities critically examines the various ways in which Canadian cities continue to be racialized despite | objective evidence of racial diversity and the dominant ideology of multiculturalism. Contributors consider how spatial conditions in Canadian cities are simultaneously part of, and influenced by, racial domination and racial resistance. Reflecting on the ways in which race is systematically hidden within the workings of Canadian cities, the book also explores the ways in which racialized people attempt to claim space. These essays
