

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910450065003321
Titolo	Qualitative research in social work [[electronic resource] /] / [edited by] Ian Shaw and Nick G. Gould
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : SAGE, 2001
ISBN	1-4462-3502-5 1-84920-969-3 1-280-36976-0 9786610369768 1-4129-3345-5
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (246 p.)
Collana	Introducing qualitative methods
Altri autori (Persone)	ShawIan GouldNick
Disciplina	361.3072
Soggetti	Social service - Research - Methodology Qualitative research Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [203]-224) and indexes.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Contents; Acknowledgements; Notes on Authors and Contributors; Introduction; Chapter 1 - The Social Work Context for Qualitative Research; Chapter 2 - A Review of Qualitative Research in Social Work; Chapter 3 - Caught Not Taught: Ethnographic Research at a Young People's Accommodation Project; Chapter 4 - Interviewing Interviewers and Knowing about Knowledge; Chapter 5 - Personal Troubles as Social Issues: A Narrative of Infertility in context; Chapter 6 - 'People Listened to What We Had to Say': Reflections on an Emancipatory Qualitative Evaluation Chapter 7 - Auto-Ethnography as Reflexive Inquiry: The Research Act as Self-Surveillance Chapter 8 - Identifying Expert Social Work: Qualitative Practitioner Research; Chapter 9 - Fieldwork Choices in Context; Chapter 10 - Inquiry and Action: Qualitative Research and Professional Practice; Chapter 11 - The Consequences of Qualitative Social Work Research; References; Subject Index; Name Index
Sommario/riassunto	This work examines epistemological and methodological issues in qualitative research where the agenda is set by social work practice. It provides a basis for adopting qualitative methodologies in research practice.
