

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910450090503321
Autore	Junne George H
Titolo	The history of Blacks in Canada [[electronic resource]] : a selectively annotated bibliography // George H. Junne, Jr
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Westport, CT, : Greenwood Press, 2003
ISBN	1-282-41673-1 9786612416736 0-313-01710-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (432 p.)
Collana	Bibliographies and indexes in Afro-American and African studies ; ; no. 44
Disciplina	016.971 016.971/00496 016.97100496
Soggetti	Black people - Canada - History Electronic books. Canada Race relations Bibliography
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes indexes.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Acknowledgements; Introduction; General Information; Arts and Artists; Black Communities; Business, Labor and Employment; Education; Fugitive Slaves, Slavery and Abolition; Laws and Criminal Justice; Literature and Poetry; Media; Military; Music; Physical and Mental Health; Racist Practices and Organizations; Religion; Sports; Women; Alberta; British Columbia; Manitoba; New Brunswick; Newfoundland; Nova Scotia; Ontario; Prince Edward Island; Quebec; Saskatchewan; Yukon Territory; Black Newspapers and Magazines; Films and Videos; Author Index; Subject Index
Sommario/riassunto	This fascinating bibliography of source materials clearly demonstrates the significant roles blacks have played in the history and culture of Canada from its beginnings as well as their 400-year fight for equity and justice. Organized by area of endeavor and by province, the source materials detailed here reveal that blacks in Canada have created a rich, diverse, and complex legacy. This volume lists resources that point to blacks' history as soldiers, prospectors, educators, cowboys, homesteaders, entertainers, legislators, athletes, artists, servants, and writers.||The most comprehensive bib
