

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910450361303321
Titolo	Agricultural growth for the poor [[electronic resource]] : an agenda for development
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, D.C., : World Bank, c2005
ISBN	1-280-19212-7 9786610192120 0-8213-6068-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (228 p.)
Collana	Directions in development
Disciplina	338.1/09172/4
Soggetti	Agriculture - Economic aspects - Developing countries Agriculture and state - Developing countries Agricultural development projects - Developing countries Agricultural assistance - Developing countries Public-private sector cooperation - Developing countries Poverty - Developing countries Poor - Developing countries Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 175-184) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Foreword; Acknowledgments; Acronyms; Executive Summary; 1. The Role of Agricultural Growth in Development Strategies to Benefit the Poor; Boxes; Figures; Tables; 2. The Rapidly Changing Context for Agriculture: Challenges and Opportunities; 3. Policies and Institutions to Accelerate Agricultural Growth for the Poor; 4. Public Investments for Pro-Poor Growth; 5. Tailoring Development Support to Diverse Agricultural Systems; 6. Getting Agriculture Back on the Development Agenda; Endnotes; References; Index
Sommario/riassunto	The majority of the world's poor depend directly or indirectly on agriculture. Despite the strong linkages between broad-based agricultural growth and poverty reduction, international support to agriculture sharply declined from the late 1980's. The need to raise agriculture's prominence in the development agenda has never been greater. This book seeks to articulate the World Bank's Rural Strategy on agriculture to the wider development community. It provides decision makers with the rationale for supporting agriculture by presenting the lessons learned on the policies, institutions, and priori...
