Sommario/riassunto	I recommend this book not only to therapists who work with children but especially to parents and teachers... [T]his book pushes past the complexities of psychological theory and jargon... [I]t is rare to find a therapist who has the sensitivity and skill to create...a safe and sacred psychological space...in which children feel free to allow their monsters

into the room... Dennis McCarthy clearly has this gift... - from the foreword by Richmond K. Greene, Jungian analyst and former director of the C.G. Jung Institute in New York City. With a great deal of love, compassion, and wisdom Dennis M
