Sommario/riassunto

Quelle que soit la fonction que l'on est amene a remplir dans la societe, il est, dans toute carriere et dans la vie, un moment veritablement crucial: celui de la nomination, de la designation a titre definitif. Bien souvent, le bref entretien ou l'insignifiante feuille de papier notifiant que l'on fait desormais partie d'une collectivite au sein de laquelle on travaillera sa vie durant fera passer l'individu, a tout le moins de l'incertitude a la securite, au mieux, s'il beneficie d'une promotion, d'une position moindre a un surcroit de responsabilites. L'eveque du moyen age n'echappe pas a cette evidence intemporelle : le moment ou plutot, dans le cas present, la periode au cours de laquelle un clerc parvient a acceder a la charge episcopale revet sans nul doute une importance capitale a ses yeux. Elle est d'ailleurs valorisee dans cette societe medievale qui assouvit son besoin de concret notamment dans l'elaboration de ceremoniaux souvent tres complexes. Au vrai, bien loin d'etre anodine, la designation d'un eveque consiste en une succession de phases, de ceremonies, de gestes sacralises au terme de laquelle il acquiert la plenitude de son autorite. Cela dit, l'avenement d'un prelat medieval, investi d'une mission spirituelle, certes, mais aussi detenteur de responsabilites temporelles, laigues, s'inscrit dans un contexte a la fois religieux et politique et, a chacune des etapes qui le mettent un peu plus en possession de son autorite, interviennent, avec plus ou moins d'influence, plusieurs types et niveaux de pouvoir : le chapitre cathedral, le metropolitain, le roi, le pape.
