

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910451305803321
Titolo	Entrepreneurship education and training [[electronic resource]] : an international perspective // editor, Harry Matlay
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Bradford, : Emerald Group Press, c2007
ISBN	1-280-92901-4 9786610929016 1-84663-449-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (193 p.)
Collana	Journal of Small Business and Enterprise Development ; ; 14, no. 2
Altri autori (Persone)	MatlayHarry
Disciplina	658.02 658.02/2 658.02/2/071 658.45
Soggetti	Business education Entrepreneurship - Study and teaching Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; CONTENTS; EDITORIAL ADVISORY BOARD; Introduction; An examination of entrepreneurship education in the United States; Enterprise for all? The fragility of enterprise provision across England's HEIs; New graduate employment within SMEs: still in the dark?; Creating the reasonable adventurer: the co-evolution of student and learning environment; The role of gender in US microenterprise business plan development; Entrepreneurship education in the UK: a longitudinal perspective; Collaborative business relationships; Vocational training: trust, talk and knowledge transfer in small businesses Small business owners: too busy to train? Human resource management in growing small firms; Training commitment and performance in manufacturing SMEs; Using training and development to affect job satisfaction within franchising
Sommario/riassunto	In recent years, issues relating to education, training and the development of entrepreneurs and/or their workforce have climbed steadily toward the top of government agenda and currently represent a high priority imperative for government policy throughout the industrially developed and developing world. The twelve contributions included in this e-book are indicative of the richness and variety of subtopics that represent the subject area. They consolidate conceptual and contextual growth in this field of entrepreneurship research.
