Sommario/riassunto

Pierre-Auguste Renoir was born in Limoges on 25 February 1841. In 1854, the boy's parents took him from school and found a place for him in the Levy brothers' workshop, where he was to learn to paint porcelain. Renoir's younger brother Edmond had this to say about the move: "From what he drew in charcoal on the walls, they concluded that he had the ability for an artist's profession. That was how our parents came to put him to learn the trade of porcelain painter." One of the Levys' workers, Emile Laporte, painted in oils in his spare time. He suggested Renoir makes use of his canvases and
