

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910451721503321
Autore	Greenberg Michael R
Titolo	The environmental impact statement after two generations [[electronic resource]] : managing environmental power // Michael R. Greenberg
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Abingdon, Oxon [England] ; ; New York, NY, : Routledge, 2012
ISBN	1-299-69351-2 1-136-63627-7 0-203-80383-3
Edizione	[1st edition]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (249 p.)
Collana	Natural and built environment series
Disciplina	344.7304/6 344.73046
Soggetti	Environmental impact statements - Law and legislation - United States Environmental impact statements - United States Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	The Environmental Impact Statement after Two Generations Managing environmental power; Copyright; Contents; List of illustrations; Preface; Acknowledgments; 1 A statement of values and forty years of field trials; 2 Metropolitan new jersey: transportation, sprawl and urban revitalization; 3 Ellis island New York Harbor: time closes in on a national cultural treasure; 4 Sparrows point, maryland:proposed liquefied natural gas facilities; 5 Johnston Island: destruction of the US chemical weapons stockpile 6 Savannah River Nuclear Weapons Facility: managing the legacy of the military's nuclear factory7 Animas-La plata, four corners: water rights and the ute legacy; 8 NEPA and the challenges of the early twenty-first century; Bibliography; Index
Sommario/riassunto	This book is about a subject that Michael Greenberg has worked on and lived with for almost forty years. He was brought up in the south Bronx at a time when his neighborhood suffered from terrible air and noise pollution, and domestic waste went untreated into the Hudson River. For him, the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) was a blessing. It included an ethical position about the environment, and the law required some level of accountability in the form of an environmental impact statement, or EIS. After forty years of thinking about and working with NEPA and th
