1.	Record Nr.	UNINA9910451817803321
	Autore	Brulin Goran
	Titolo	Managing sustainable development programmes [[electronic resource]] : a learning approach to change / / by Goran Brulin and Lennart Svensson
	Pubbl/distr/stampa	Farnham, Surrey ; ; Burlington, VT, : Gower Pub., 2012
	ISBN	1-317-10141-3 1-317-10140-5 1-280-68968-4 9786613666628 1-4094-3720-5
	Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (233 p.)
	Altri autori (Persone)	SvenssonLennart <1944->
	Disciplina	338.9/27
	Soggetti	Sustainable development Electronic books.
	Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
	Formato	Materiale a stampa
	Livello bibliografico	Monografia
	Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
	Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
	Nota di contenuto	Cover; Contents; List of Figures and Table; Foreword; About the Authors; 1 Running Programmes for Sustainable Development; 2 Models of Change and Evaluation; 3 Key Research Findings; 4 Evaluation for Sustainable Development; 5 Lessons from Earlier Programme Initiatives; 6 Lessons from Competence Initiatives; 7 Innovation and the Regional Fund; 8 Owning, Steering and Evaluating Large Programmes; Afterword; References; Index
	Sommario/riassunto	Managing Sustainable Development is about understanding the difficulties and complexities of large change programmes and projects in both the private and public sectors. The authors' research reveals an extraordinary level of failure in these projects, the analysis of which overturns much of our traditional thinking about project delivery and governance.They turn existing theories on project management on their head, focusing instead on sustainable change and development. The message at its heart is 'don't blame the project leader' but rather look for active ownership of projects; joint knowle