

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910451959403321
Autore	Healy Karen
Titolo	Social work practices [[electronic resource]] : contemporary perspectives on change // Karen Healy
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : SAGE, 2000
ISBN	1-283-88145-4 1-4462-6567-6 0-7619-6271-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (177 p.)
Disciplina	361.3/2
Soggetti	Social service - Philosophy Human services Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Contents; Acknowledgements; Chapter 1 - Social Work: Contemporary Challenges; Chapter 2 - The Legacy of Our Past and the Nature of Our Present; Chapter 3 - Foucault, Feminism and the Politics of Emancipation; Chapter 4 - Critical Social Work Responses to 'Post' Theories; Chapter 5 - Rethinking Professional Power and Identity; Chapter 6 - Liberation or Regulation: Interrogating the Practices of Change; Chapter 7 - Reconstructing Critical Practices; Chapter 8 - Conclusions; Appendix: Conversation Transcription Conventions; References; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Social Work Practices is a critical review of contemporary social work theory and its relevance for professional practice. The author explains debates on postmodernism and poststructuralism and applies them to social work practice.