

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910452029403321
Autore	Kramer Paul A (Paul Alexander), <1968->
Titolo	The blood of government [[electronic resource] ] : race, empire, the United States, & the Philippines // Paul A. Kramer
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Chapel Hill, : University of North Carolina Press, c2006
ISBN	0-8078-7717-4
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (553 p.)
Disciplina	959.9/03
Soggetti	Electronic books. Philippines History 1898-1946 United States History 1865- Philippines Race relations United States Race relations
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [481]-510) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Blood compacts : Spanish colonialism and the invention of the Filipino -- From hide to heart : the Philippine-American war as race war -- Dual mandates : collaboration and the racial state -- Tensions of exposition : mixed messages at the St. Louis World's Fair -- Representative men : the politics of nation-building -- Empire and exclusion : ending the Philippine invasion of the United States.
Sommario/riassunto	In 1899 the United States launched a brutal war of imperial conquest against the Philippine Republic. US imperialists justified their colonial empire by crafting novel racial ideologies. This book reveals how racial politics served US empire, and how empire-building in turn transformed ideas of race and nation in both the US and the Philippines.