

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910452165003321
Autore	Braham Persephone
Titolo	Crimes against the state, crimes against persons [[electronic resource] ] : detective fiction in Cuba and Mexico // Persephone Braham
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Minneapolis, Minn., : University of Minnesota Press, c2004
ISBN	0-8166-9470-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (187 p.)
Disciplina	863/.08720997291
Soggetti	Detective and mystery stories, Cuban - History and criticism Detective and mystery stories, Mexican - History and criticism Cuban fiction - 20th century - History and criticism Mexican fiction - 20th century - History and criticism Politics and literature - Cuba Politics and literature - Mexico Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 145-164) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Acknowledgments; Introduction: Latin American Detective Literature in Context; Cuba: Crimes against the State; Mexico: Crimes against Persons; Epilogue: Globalization and Detective Literature in Spanish; Notes; Bibliography; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Persephone Braham shows how the Cuban novela negra examines the Revolution through a chronicle of life under a decaying regime, and how the Mexican neopoliciaco reveals the oppressive politics of modernization in Latin America. Considering the work of writers such as Leonardo Padura Fuentes as well as G. K. Chesterton, Braham addresses Marxist critiques of the culture industry and Latin American postmodernity.