

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910452575303321
Autore	McKinney Karyn D. <1969-, >
Titolo	Being white : stories of race and racism / / Karyn D. McKinney
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, N.Y. : , : Routledge, , 2005
ISBN	0-203-61680-4 1-299-47948-0 1-136-06426-5
Descrizione fisica	xxi, 270 p
Disciplina	305.809
Soggetti	White people - Race identity - United States Youth - United States - Attitudes Race awareness - United States Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 247-266) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Acknowledgements; Foreword - Joe Feagin; Preface: A white woman from the South; 1. 'I could tell my life story without mentioning race:' Exploring everyday whiteness; 2. 'I began to see how important race could be:' Turning points in whiteness; 3. 'Being born in the U.S. to white parents is almost boring:' Whiteness as indescribable and meaningless; 4. 'I feel whiteness when I hear people blaming whites:' Whiteness as culturally stigmatized; 5. 'I was the loser in this rat race:' Whiteness as economically disadvantaged; 6. 'Being white is like being free:' Whiteness and the potential for anti-racism; Appendices: A. Sample Validity; B. Regional Differences; C. Autobiography Guide
Sommario/riassunto	'Being White' explores what the author calls 'everyday whiteness,' that is, whiteness as lived by everyday experience. This volume aims to shed light on a rarely studied or discussed topic.