

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910452627503321
Autore	Sharifi Majid <1951->
Titolo	Imagining Iran [[electronic resource]] : the tragedy of subaltern nationalism / / Majid Sharifi
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Md. ; ; Plymouth, England, : Lexington Books, c2013
ISBN	0-7391-8639-6 0-7391-7945-4
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (375 p.)
Disciplina	955.05
Soggetti	Nationalism - Iran - History - 20th century Islam and state - Iran - History - 20th century Legitimacy of governments - Iran - History - 20th century Electronic books. Iran Politics and government 20th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Preface; A Note on the Transliteration; Chapter One: Contested Iranianness; Chapter Two: The Emergence of Modern Iranian Nationalism; Chapter Three: Subaltern Developmentalism; Chapter Four: Imperial Interventions (1941 and 1953); Chapter Five: Formation of a Hegemonic National Opposition (1953-1978); Chapter Six: The Islamic Republic; Chapter Seven: Consolidation of the State Power But Crisis in National Identity; Chapter Eight: Islamic Nationalism Redefined; Chapter Nine: Official Nationalism in Practice; Conclusion; Bibliography; Index; About the Author
Sommario/riassunto	The thematic focus of this book is the tragic yet inevitable effects of subaltern nationalism. The book covers the systemic challenges that all modern Iranian regimes have faced in establishing a sovereign, developed, democratic, and constitutional nation-state. The book would certainly benefit both scholars and students of international relations, comparative politics, developmental studies, Iranian studies, and those interested in a deeper understanding of the ongoing Middle Eastern security and foreign policy issues.

