

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910452832703321
Autore	Taylor Clarence
Titolo	Black religious intellectuals : the fight for equality from Jim Crow to the twenty-first century // Clarence Taylor
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York : , : Routledge, , 2002
ISBN	9780203616635 0203616634 9781136061868 113606186X 9781136061783 1136061789 9781299478473 1299478476 1-136-06170-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (224 p.)
Collana	Crosscurrents in African American history
Disciplina	200/.92/396073 B
Soggetti	African American clergy African American intellectuals African American leadership African American clergy - Political activity African Americans - Civil rights African Americans - Religion Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [217]-220) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: Black intellectuals : a more inclusive perspective -- Sticking to the ship : manhood, fraternity, and the religious world view of A. Philip Randolph -- Expanding the boundaries of politics : the various voices of the Black religious community of Brooklyn, New York before and during the Cold War -- The Pentecostal preacher as public intellectual and activist : the extraordinary leadership of Bishop

Smallwood Williams -- The Reverend John Culmer and the politics of Black representation in Miami, Florida -- The Reverend Theodore Gibson and the significance of Cold War liberalism in the fight for citizenship -- "A natural born leader" : the politics of the Rev. Al Sharpton -- The evolving spiritual and political leadership of Louis Farrakhan : from Allah's masculine warrior to ecumenical sage -- Ella Baker, Pauli Murray, and the challenge to male patriarchy.

---

Sommario/riassunto

Clarence Taylor shows how black leaders were able to carve out a space for religion as part of a progressive political agenda and reveals the complex and innovative ways that black religious notions were continually reconstructed to accommodate the communities they served.

---