

|                         |   |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910452932503321   |
| Autore                  | Ngwane George   |
| Titolo                  | The Cameroon condition [[electronic resource] /] / George Ngwane  |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | Mankon, Cameroon, : Langaa Research & Pub. CIG, c2012   |
| ISBN                    | 9956-727-10-59956-727-08-3  |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (190 p.)  |
| Soggetti                | Electronic books.Cameroon Politics and government   |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese   |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa  |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia  |
| Note generali           | Description based upon print version of record.   |
| Nota di contenuto       | Cover; Title Page; Copyright Page; Contents; Preface; The Mungo Bridge; Introduction; Chapter One. National Integration; Chapter Two. National Unity; Chapter Three. National Consciousness; The Anglophone File; Chapter Four. Where The Coastal/Graffi Divide Began; Chapter Five. Why The First Attempt At Coastal/Graffi Unity Failed; Chapter Six. How the Drama of South West/North West Divide Is Being Rehearsed Today; Chapter Seven. Why We Must Build Bridges Instead Of Walls; Chapter Eight Why We Need a Two By (X) State Federation; Fragments of Unity; Chapter Nine. Our Geography Chapter Ten. Yesterday's Heroes - The Cradle of South WestChapter Eleven. Our Task Today; Chapter Twelve. Our Common Future; Back Cover |
| Sommario/riassunto      | The Cameroon Condition brings together three seminal essays by George Ngwane, one of the most renowned, committed and daring Anglophone Cameroon writers. iThe Mungo Bridge,i is a stinging indictment of the tenuous relations between La Republique du Cameroun and the Southern Cameroons n a marriage gone sour right from the honeymoon. It raises hard questions on the failed union, and is uncompromisingly courageous in the solutions it proposes. This popular essay was first published at a time when it was risky to be open and critical, especially on what has come to be known as The Anglophone Probl  |

