

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910453542103321
Titolo	Inside Connecticut and the Civil War : essays on one state's struggles / / Matthew Warshauer, editor
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Middletown, Connecticut : , : Wesleyan University Press, , 2014 ©2014
ISBN	0-8195-7397-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (289 p.)
Collana	Garnet books
Altri autori (Persone)	WarshauerMatthew <1965->
Disciplina	974.6/03
Soggetti	Electronic books. Connecticut History Civil War, 1861-1865
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index. Cover image: Civil War veterans on Decoration Day, 1905, probably at the Higganum Cemetry, Higganum, Connecticut.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction / Matthew Warshauer -- Guns and butter : how Connecticut financed the Civil War / James E. Brown -- Mystic shipbuilding and the Union Navy / Diana Moraco -- Patriotism and abolitionism in Civil War-era Windham County / Carol Patterson- Martineau -- Untried to unrivaled : the Fourteenth Regiment, Connecticut Volunteer Infantry / David C. W. Batch -- The Colt Armory fire : Connecticut and the great Confederate conspiracy / Luke G. Boyd -- Post-traumatic stress disorder in the Civil War : connecticut casualties and a look into the mind / Michael Sturges -- Patriot, soldier, statesman : General Joseph R. Hawley and Civil War commemoration in Connecticut / Todd Jones -- From Decoration Day to the Centennial Commission : Civil War commemoration in Connecticut, 1868-1965 / Emily E. Gifford -- Teaching the past's perspective of the past : Civil War reenactors in Connecticut / Michael Conlin.
Sommario/riassunto	How a small state struggled, survived, and remains connected to its past