Sommario/riassunto

Réunis par la Société des Amis d'Illobérus, ces textes sont dédiés à Miquel de Giginta, un fils de la bourgeoisie perpignanaise, devenu chanoine d'Elne avant de se lancer, vers 1575 sur la route de Madrid et de proposer aux Cortès de Castille une réforme de la bienfaisance qui aura pour effet de créer des Casas de Misericordia dans les principales villes de la péninsule ibérique. Faisant suite à un colloque organisé sous la présidence de Michel Cavillac, cet ouvrage est consacré à des thèmes éducatifs et sociaux. Il réunit des spécialistes provenant de plusieurs horizons disciplinaires et va bien au-delà d'une simple description de l'œuvre très progressiste de Giginta : il propose une réflexion plus générale au sujet de la protection des populations.

Reunits per la Societat des Amis d'Illoberis, aquests documents estan dedicats a l'estudi de Miquel de Giginta, fill de burgesos honrats de Perpinyà, que va ser canonge d'Elna abans de marxar cap a l'any 1575 en direcció a Madrid i de proposar a les Corts de Castella una reforma de la beneficiència que tindrà per conseqüència la creació de les Casas de Misericordia en les principals ciutats de la península ibèrica. Aquest treball col·lectiu que segueix un col·loqui organitzat sota la presidència de Michel Cavillac, tracta bàsicament de qüestions educatives i socials. Aplega especialistes de diverses procedències i té per objectiu d'anar més enllà d'una descripció formal de l'obra molt progressista de Giginta ; proposa una reflexió més general pel que fa a la protecció de les poblacions.
