

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNINA9910453804503321 |
| Autore | Jennings James <1949-> |
| Titolo | Urban spaces : planning and struggles for land and community / / James Jennings and Julia S. Jordan-Zachery |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | Lanham, Maryland : , : Lexington Books, , [2010] ©2010 |
| ISBN | 0-7391-3746-8 |
| Descrizione fisica | 1 online resource (166 p.) |
| Disciplina | 307.1/2160973 |
| Soggetti | City planning - United States Community development - United States Corporate power - United States Electronic books. |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Description based upon print version of record. |
| Nota di bibliografia | Includes bibliographical references and index. |
| Nota di contenuto | Determining the public good and evaluating local economic development : critique of the U.S. Supreme Court's Kelo v. new London decision / James Jennings, J. S. Jordan-Zachery -- Pretexts, paranoia, and public space : rethinking the right to the city after 9/11 / Don Mitchell -- Changing neighborhood : mobilization and community planning in Asian ethnic enclaves / Michael Liu and Kim Geron -- Playing Cape Town : politics of stadium development for the 2010 World Cup / Tony Roshan Samara -- Black community responses to hurricanes Hugo and Andrew : continuing struggles for land and social justice / David McBride -- Revisiting the Roxbury master plan in Boston : key accomplishments for equity planning / James Jennings -- The procedural fix in California and its implications for an equitable planning theory / Robert W. Smith -- Contesting community development : promoters and critics / James DeFilippis, Robert Fisher, and Eric Shragge. |
| Sommario/riassunto | Urban Spaces is an interdisciplinary reader focusing on community-based versus corporate-based political and ideological struggles over the utilization of urban land and spaces. |

