

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910453870403321
Autore	Lynch John Roy <1847-1939.>
Titolo	Reminiscences of an active life [[electronic resource]] : the autobiography of John Roy Lynch // Edited and with an introduction by John Hope Franklin
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Jackson, : University Press of Mississippi, 2008
ISBN	1-283-28242-9 9786613282422 1-60473-330-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (564 p.)
Collana	Negro American biographies and autobiographies
Disciplina	973.8/0924 973.80924
Soggetti	Reconstruction (U.S. history, 1865-1877) African American politicians - Mississippi Electronic books. United States Politics and government 1865-1900 Mississippi Politics and government 1865-1950
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Originally published: University of Chicago Press, 1970.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; CONTENTS; INTRODUCTION; ACKNOWLEDGMENTS; PREFACE; 1 His Father's Keeping; 2 Into Bondage Again; 3 The War Came; 4 Confederate Looting; 5 Looking for Employment; 6 In the Photography Business; 7 A Constitution for Mississippi; 8 Justice of the Peace; 9 1869: State Elections and Reorganization; 10 Electing a Legislature; 11 Financing State Reconstruction; 12 Speaker of the House Lynch; 13 1872: Election to Congress; 14 Visit to Saint Louis; 15 1873: Mississippi Senatorial Elections; 16 Governors Alcorn and Ames; 17 The Colored Vote: Mississippi; 18 The Colored Vote: The South 19 1874: Diminishing Republican Power20 1875: Gloomy Prospects for Reelection; 21 1875: Conversation with the President; 22 1875: Democratic Victory; 23 The Disputed Presidency; 24 1880: Garfield, the Compromise Candidate; 25 1880: The Battle for Reelection; 26 The Vicksburg Postmastership; 27 The Garfield Years; 28 1881: Republican and Greenback Alliance; 29 1882: Party and Election Disputes; 30

1884: Presidential Nominations; 31 1885: The Failure of J. R. Chalmers;
32 Marriage and Divorce; 33 The Cleveland Years: Interracial Marriages;
34 The Harrison Years
35 Republican Factionalism and the Problem of Disenfranchisement
36 Cleveland's Reelection; 37 Law Firm of Terrell and Lynch; 38 1896: The McKinley Campaign; 39 Contest for Mississippi Delegates; 40 Fighting
the Hill Organization; 41 McKinley Appointments: The Postal Service; 42 McKinley Appointments: Army Paymaster Lynch; 43 Keeping in Politics; 44 Controversial Convention Procedures; 45 In Cuba; 46 In Nebraska; 47 In Puerto Rico and San Francisco; 48 In Hawaii and the Philippines; 49 Retirement and Remarriage; 50 Democrats in the South:
The Race Question; INDEX

Sommario/riassunto

Born into slavery on a Louisiana plantation, John Roy Lynch (1847-1939) came to adulthood during the Reconstruction Era and lived a public-spirited life for over three decades. His autobiography, 'Reminiscences of an Active Life', reflects Lynch's thoughtful and nuanced understanding of the past and of his own experience.
