

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910454604503321
Autore	Seeley Karen M.
Titolo	Therapy after terror : 9/11, psychotherapists, and mental health / / Karen M. Seeley [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Cambridge : , : Cambridge University Press, , 2008
ISBN	1-107-18611-0 0-511-47969-7 9786612001352 1-282-00135-3 0-511-55123-1 0-511-48049-0 0-511-47728-7 0-511-47584-5 0-511-47880-1
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (x, 242 pages) : digital, PDF file(s)
Disciplina	616.85/21
Soggetti	September 11 Terrorist Attacks, 2001 - Psychological aspects Post-traumatic stress disorder - Treatment - New York (State) - New York Crisis intervention (Mental health services) - New York (State) - New York Disaster victims - Rehabilitation - New York (State) - New York
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Title from publisher's bibliographic system (viewed on 05 Oct 2015).
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 213-232) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Trauma histories -- Volunteers for America -- "Get me counselors!" -- The psychological treatment of trauma -- The trauma of psychological treatment -- Diagnosing posttraumatic stress disorder -- Trauma as metaphor -- Mental health in traumatic times.
Sommario/riassunto	Therapy After Terror examines the 2001 World Trade Center attack from the perspectives of New York City mental health professionals who treated the psychologically wounded following the attack. Therapists discuss the attack's effects on their patients, its personal and professional consequences for them, and the ways it challenged fundamental aspects of clinical theory and practice. The book describes crisis mental health services that were established after the attack, as well as longer-term treatments. It also examines notions of trauma, diagnostic procedures, and the politics of psychological treatment. Seeley uses her unique interdisciplinary background as she provides a detailed study of the post-9/11 mental health crisis, including depictions of the restricted 'hot spots' such as the Lexington Avenue Armory, Family Assistance Centers, and Respite Centers at Ground Zero, where mental health workers delivered aid.
