

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910454706003321
Autore	Brown Michael F (Michael Fobes), <1950->
Titolo	Tsewa's gift [[electronic resource] ] : magic and meaning in an Amazonian society // Michael F. Brown
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Tuscaloosa, Ala., : University of Alabama Press, 2007, c1985
ISBN	0-8173-8264-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (222 p.)
Disciplina	299.8 306.08998
Soggetti	Aguaruna Indians - Ethnobotany Aguaruna Indians - Religion Aguaruna magic Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Originally published: Washington, D.C. : Smithsonian Institution Press, 1985.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 207-215) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Acknowledgments; Illustrations and Plates; Tables; Orthographic Note; Preface to the Paperback Edition; Introduction; Chapter 1: Alto Mayo; Chapter 2: Seen and Unseen; Chapter 3: The Uses of Affinity; Chapter 4: The Garden's Children; Chapter 5: A Technology of Sentiment; Chapter 6: Working Metaphors; Afterword; Appendix 1: Sources of Anen; Appendix 2: Notes on the Collection, Transcription, and Translation of Aguaruna Anen; Notes; Bibliography; Index
Sommario/riassunto	""An outstanding and innovative study on hunting, gardening, and love magic among the Aguaruna. . . . [It is] both highly useful ethnographically and an important contribution to the understanding of how a primitive culture conceptualizes its transactions with nature. The book touches on cosmology and religion as well as the ethnoecology of hunting and agriculture--with an interlude on sex."" --American Ethnologist