

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910454835503321
Autore	Goldman Karla <1960->
Titolo	Beyond the synagogue gallery [[electronic resource] ] : finding a place for women in American Judaism / / Karla Goldman
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Cambridge, MA, : Harvard University Press, 2000
ISBN	0-674-03777-4
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xii, 275 p. ) : ill
Disciplina	296.0820973
Soggetti	Women in Judaism - United States - History - 19th century Judaism - United States - History - 19th century Jewish women - United States - History - 19th century Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Acknowledgments Introduction: Women and the Synagogue 1 Jewish Women: Acculturation in Old and New Worlds 2 Women's Emergence in the Early American Synagogue Community 3 The Quest for Respectability: Mixed Choirs and Family Pews 4 The Trouble with Jewish Women 5 Women in the Reforming Synagogue: Resistance and Transformation 6 Kaufmann Kohler and the Ideal Jewish Woman 7 Beyond the Gallery: American Jewish Women in the 1890's Epilogue: Twentieth-Century Resonances Notes Index
Sommario/riassunto	This volume recounts the emergence of roles for American Jewish women in public worship and synagogue life. It study of changing patterns of female religiosity is a story of acculturation, of adjustment made to fit Jewish worship into American society.