

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910454926903321
Autore	Issel William
Titolo	For both cross and flag [[electronic resource]] : Catholic Action, anti-Catholicism, and national security politics in World War II San Francisco // William Issel
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Philadelphia, : Temple University Press, 2010
ISBN	1-282-42369-X 9786612423697 1-4399-0030-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (216 p.)
Collana	Urban Life, Landscape and Policy
Disciplina	305.6/827946108951
Soggetti	Italian Americans - California - San Francisco - History - 20th century Catholic Action - California - San Francisco - History - 20th century Anti-Catholicism - California - San Francisco - History - 20th century Religion and politics - California - San Francisco - History - 20th century World War, 1939-1945 - Italian Americans Italian Americans - Civil rights Electronic books. San Francisco (Calif.) Ethnic relations San Francisco (Calif.) Politics and government 20th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Sylvester Andriano, a Catholic attorney in San Francisco -- Anti-Catholicism in Little Italy -- Catholic Action, from Rome to San Francisco -- Catholic Action theory and practice in San Francisco -- Sylvester Andriano and Catholic Action in San Francisco -- The Catholic Action social apostolate -- The Catholic Action educational and moral apostolates -- Catholic Action and communism -- Catholic Action, European crises, and San Francisco politics -- Andriano's ordeal: the loyalty hearings -- Andriano's ordeal: exclusion and exile.
Sommario/riassunto	Against a backdrop of war and anti-Catholic sentiment, one man loses his rights because he is falsely accusedIn this fascinating, detailed history, William Issel recounts the civil rights abuses suffered by Sylvester Andriano, an Italian American Catholic civil leader whose religious and political activism in San Francisco provoked an Anti-Catholic campaign against him. A leading figure in the Catholic Action movement, Andriano was falsely accused in state and federal Un-American Activities Committee hearings of having Fascist sympathies prior to and during World War II. As his ordeal
