

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNINA9910455024503321 |
| Titolo | Environmental justice and sustainability in the former Soviet Union [[electronic resource] /] / edited by Julian Agyeman and Yelena Ogneva-Himmelberger |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | Cambridge, MA, : MIT Press, c2009 |
| ISBN | 0-262-31013-9 1-282-24030-7 9786612240300 0-262-25549-9 |
| Descrizione fisica | 1 online resource (306 p.) |
| Collana | Urban and industrial environments |
| Altri autori (Persone) | Agyeman Julian Ogneva-Himmelberger Yelena |
| Disciplina | 363.700947 |
| Soggetti | Environmental degradation - Former Soviet republics Environmental justice - Former Soviet republics Environmental policy - Former Soviet republics Electronic books. Former Soviet republics Environmental conditions |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Description based upon print version of record. |
| Nota di bibliografia | Includes bibliographical references and index. |
| Nota di contenuto | Contents; Contributors; Introduction; 1 The Law as a Source of Environmental Injustice in the Russian Federation; 2 Thinking Globally, Limited Locally; 3 Places and Identities on Sakhalin Island; 4 Oil Wealth, Environment, and Equity in Azerbaijan; 5 Civil Society and the Debate over Pipelines in Tunka National Park, Russia; 6 The Role of Culture and Nationalism in Latvian Environmentalism and the Implications for Environmental Justice; 7 The Fight for Community Justice against Big Oil in the Caspian Region; 8 Viliui Sakha of Subarctic Russia and Their Struggle for Environmental Justice 9 Environmental Justice and Sustainability in Post-Soviet Estonia 10 Environmental Injustices, Unsustainable Livelihoods, and Conflict; Conclusion; Index |
| Sommario/riassunto | This is an examination of the awareness of environmental and social | justice issues in the former Soviet republics - from the Western-style democracies of the Baltic region to the totalitarian regimes of Central Asia - and the resulting activism in those states.
