

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910455350503321
Autore	Jordan William G
Titolo	Black newspapers and America's war for democracy, 1914-1920 [[electronic resource] /] / William G. Jordan
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Chapel Hill, : University of North Carolina, c2001
ISBN	0-8078-7552-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (253 p.)
Disciplina	071/.3/08996073
Soggetti	African American press - History - 20th century African American newspapers - History - 20th century World War, 1914-1918 - Press coverage - United States Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [213]-225) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Illustrations; Acknowledgments; Introduction; CHAPTER 1; CHAPTER 2; CHAPTER 3; CHAPTER 4; CHAPTER 5; Conclusion; Notes; Select Bibliography; Index;
Sommario/riassunto	Explains how the black press enlisted public support for racial justice during World War I. A delicate balance was achieved between affirming patriotism and supporting President Wilson's war for democracy and demanding the government take steps to stop lynching, segregation and disenfranchisement.