

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910455839303321
Autore	Giesecke Joan
Titolo	Practical strategies for library managers [[electronic resource] /] / Joan Giesecke
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Chicago, IL, : American Library Association, 2001
ISBN	0-8389-9897-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (110 p.)
Disciplina	025.1
Soggetti	Library administration - United States Library personnel management - United States Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Figures; Preface; 1 On Becoming a Manager; 2 The Changing Environment for Middle Managers; 3 New Roles for Middle Managers; 4 Taking Charge of Your Department; 5 Mentoring and Managing Professionals; 6 Planning Skills; 7 Decision-Making Skills; 8 Communication Skills; 9 Structuring Your Department From Bureaucracies to Teams; 10 Putting It All Together; Index;
Sommario/riassunto	What does it take to succeed as a library manager? Librarian, author, and management expert Joan Giesecke builds from years of experience and research to answer this question with practical and innovative strategies geared toward helping you to set goals for your department and deliver first-rate library services. Linking the role of frontline manager to the rest of the organization, managers and administrators will learn the invaluable skills of mentoring, team-building, decision making, taking charge, and working and communicating with staff at all levels. This must-have guidebook will motiv