

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910456046303321
Autore	Whaley Peta
Titolo	Dorset [[electronic resource] /] / Peta Whaley
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Bristol [UK], : Venton, 2002, c1977
ISBN	1-280-47717-2 9786610477173 1-84150-840-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (150 p.)
Collana	Westcountry history
Disciplina	942.3/3
Soggetti	Electronic books. Great Britain History Dorset (England) History, Local
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 147-148).
Nota di contenuto	Preliminaries; Contents; Ch. 1: Shaftesbury and Alfred the Great; Ch. 2: Corfe and Edward the Martyr; Ch. 3: Sherborne and Sir Walter Raleigh; Ch. 4: Corfe Castle and Lady Banks; Ch. 5: The Western Coastal Towns and the Stuarts; Ch. 6: Dorchester, Judge Jefferies and the Bloody Assizes; Ch. 7: Marshwood Vale and the Wordsworths; Ch. 8: Portesham and Nelson's Hardy; Ch. 9: Tolpuddle and its Martyrs; Ch. 10: Sturminster Newton, Winterborne Came and William Barnes; Ch. 11: Wimborne St. Giles and the 7th Earl of Shaftesbury; Ch. 12: Stinsford, Higher Bockampton and Thomas Hardy Ch. 13: Lawrence of ArabiaBibliography;
Sommario/riassunto	Thomas Hardy was born there, Sir Walter Raleigh chose to live there, and Lawrence of Arabia is buried there. Dorset has so many great figures shaping its history, from eminent leaders such as Alfred the Great to notable writers such as Wordsworth, it could have nothing but an impressive and fascinating story.