Sommario/riassunto	Georgii Fedotov's Saints of Ancient Russia , Georgii Florovskii's The Ways of Russian Theology , Nikolai Berdiaev's The Russian Idea and Vasilii Zenkovskii's History of Russian Philosophy —these are among the most well-known and widely-read historical studies of Russian thought and culture. Having left their homeland after the Bolshevik

Revolution, these four authors aimed to present their readers with a common past and thus with a common identity, and their historical works emerged out of the need for reorientation in a post-revolutionary, émigré situation. At the same time, they were to elaborate highly contrasting versions of the Russian past. By means of in-depth narrative and contextual analyses, Reformulating Russia provides a detailed examination of the visions of Russia contained in these four works.
