Sommario/riassunto	Bath University set up its MA course in interpreting and translating in 1966. This volume celebrates forty years of interpreter and translator training at Bath. The papers cover a range of interests, from the history and development of the world-class programme, to the use of IT in the teaching and practice of translation. Issues of teaching technique - in both interpreting and translating - quality assessment in the classroom and the workplace, questions of detailed operation, such as short ...
