

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910457481803321
Autore	Schwartz Dov
Titolo	Religious-Zionism [[electronic resource] ] : history and ideology / / Dov Schwartz ; translated by Batya Stein
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Boston, : Academic Studies Press, 2009
ISBN	1-61811-097-7
Descrizione fisica	vii, 144 p
Collana	Emunot : Jewish philosophy and Kabbalah
Altri autori (Persone)	SteinBatya
Disciplina	320.54095694
Soggetti	Religious Zionism Religious Zionism - History Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and indexes.
Nota di contenuto	A revolutionary consciousness -- Rabbi Reines and the foundation of the Mizrahi -- Religious-Zionist education: beginnings -- Rav Kook: an orthodox-national alternative to Religious-Zionism -- The foundation of the Chief Rabbinate -- Ha-Poel Ha-Mizrachi: against the exile and the bourgeoisie -- Criticizing Zionist policy -- The settlement drive -- Religious-Zionism and the Holocaust -- Israel's first years: hopes and disappointments -- From rearguard to vanguard: the struggle for greater Israel -- Religious Zionism in the United States -- Religious Zionism: present and future.
Sommario/riassunto	Religious Zionism is a major component of contemporary Israeli society and politics. The author reviews the history of religious Zionism from both a historical and ideological-theological perspective. His basic assumption is that religious Zionism cannot be fully understood solely through a historical description, or even from social, political, and philosophical vantage points. This book is the first study on this subject to be published in English.